

2025 Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Jerusalem Lecture

SIXTY YEARS AFTER NOSTRA AETATE: A JEWISH PERSPECTIVE ON ITS UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Join us for the 28th Annual Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Jerusalem Lecture with opening remarks by Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, archbishop of Chicago.

Immense good will accompanied the initial moves to implement Vatican II's Nostra Aetate's teachings about Jews and Judaism. However, this process proved to be far from simple, presenting regular challenges. Where have we come, what have we learned, and what remains to be done? Moderated Q & A session to follow.

Thursday, May 8, 2025, 7 p.m.

Dr. Ruth Langer is Professor of Jewish Studies in the Theology Department at Boston College, its Director of Graduate Studies, and Associate Director of its Center for Christian-Jewish Learning. She received her Ph.D. in Jewish Liturgy in 1994 and her rabbinic ordination in 1986 from Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion in Cincinnati. Her scholarship addresses two primary areas: the development of Jewish liturgy and ritual from antiquity to today; and Christian-Jewish relations.

The event is free and open to the public.
